If you have any such conditions please disclose here:

If any dispute arises between myself and the program school, I agree to submit the dispute to the management board for a final decision if not resolved at a lower level.

I understand and recognize that there are certain risks, and perils connected with training, education procedures, and tasks, which I hereby acknowledge have be fully explained to me and which I fully understand and nevertheless accept (including communicable diseases).

I further agree to use my best judgment in undertaking training and education tasks and to faithfully adhere to all safety instructions and recommendations, whether oral or written.

American's with Disability Act: The school strives to comply with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. Students must have acceptable documentation that an ADA situation exists. The student must bring this information to the course coordinators attention before the conclusion of the first class session. Information will be reviewed and student will be advised if ADA applies to EMS training. As a general guideline, the school uses previous court cases and TxDSHS recommendations to determine what qualifies for accommodation. Because this profession requires rapid action and the ability to perform tasks autonomously, students with disabilities are encouraged to meet with program officials before enrolling. EMTS and EMTS/ACI facilities, clinical and internship sites must comply with ADA accessibility requirements. Allowable Accommodations: The Americans with Disability Act of 1990 permits testing that requires the use of sensory, manual, or speaking skills where the tests are intended to measure essential function of the profession. For example, an applicant with reading difficulties is still required to take a written exam (rather than an oral exam) since the ability to read is an essential function of EMS. Students are expected to pass a written exam and pass the skills proficiency verifications within established criteria.

- Students are required to demonstrate performance within specific time frames.
- Students must complete written exams within specific time limits.
- Students are not allowed to have written exams given orally.
- Students must take all exams at the scheduled times.
- Students must answer all test questions as written.
- Students must meet all professionalism standards.

Non-Discrimination Statement: The school does not and shall not discriminate against employees, contractors, prospective students/participants, or enrolled students on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations. If these questions are asked by the school it is mandated by local and/or federal agencies and/or certification/licensure agencies.
